THE LOUISILE POSTOFFICE.

Jesse Bayles was to-day commissioned postmaster at Lonisville, Ky., wise Dr. John J. Speed, suspended, under the civil tenure act. This sudden change was made by Postmaster General Creawell subject to the approval of the President, which was given on Wednesday. The principal complaint made against Speed was that he employed quite a number of Democratic cierks in the postoffice.

and probably expecting that it never would be. And this is the ground for Senato Morton's boast, that, under Grant, our for-eign policy has been greaff temperated. Our Government has succeeded to abroad upon all the winds of the sky as requiring the most tremendously energetic action, and this do-nothing policy is paraded as proof that "our foreign policy has been greatly improved and in superstet." The fact is, nothing at all has been accomplished in the way of negotiation with any Power whatever, not only nothing with Great Britain, but nothing with France, nothing with Spain, nothing with Spain, nothing with Spain, nothing with constitution of the other small-Powers of South America. A very curious kind of invigoration, is it not?

If the positions of the United States and great Britain had been reversed, we should probably have seen a manifesta-tion of genuine vigor, and not the spurious or burlesque article. In the case of our seisure of Mason and Sidedl on board the Trent, Great Britain, without a word of bluster, firmly demanded that they should be given up, and she allowed seven days for an answer. The Chapman Sisters.

A very large anothence was east Weisiger Hall last evening, it being the occasion of the benefit of Misees Blanche and Ella. "Pluto, or the Mapic Lyre," was put upon the sange for its first representation in Loniaville, and was rendered by the excellent company in a manner that grined for it a corolial greeting. There will be a matinee this afternoon, when "Alashin, or the Wonderful Scainp," will be produced. In the evening the Forty Thiere will close the stay of the Chapman Sisters in Louisville. They have been received in their old home with corditality and complimented nightly by overflowing houses. They offer a first-chas entertainment, which is the whole secret of their success.

Blaam, "How glotious are the inhermacle and the tented if the tented of fareal!"

The rebuilding and enlargement of the Gurch edifice has been the superintendence of Mr. Suddeen Shryok, architect. Considering the limited means of the congregation, he improvements have been such a reflect very creditably and complimented nightly by overflowing houses. The mitisterial services of Rev. A. Goldsmith, of Mempile, have been secured for the new Yongogue, and to-morrow evening at 6 o'elook it will be formuly decleased to the service of the Most fligh.

To Country Merchants and Druggists. A Curious Newspaper Relie of the Great Unpheasantaesa.

Colonel Fuller, of this city, yesterday handed us a curious newspaper rulie of the war. It is nothing less than a copy of "The Daily Citizen," dated at Vickburg, July Z, 1623—just two days previous to the surrender of that city to General Grant. The "Citizen" is printed on the blank side of a piece of yellow wall-paper about twenty inches long by cieven inches wide, and has the name of J. M. Swords at the head of its first column as proprietor. It has four columns of natter, in brevier type. A column and a hird is devoted to telegrams from Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Baltumore, and New York, adaed June 21, and beaded in a black full-face letter, "Yankee News from All Points." The balance of the paper is devoted to editorial articles and paragraphs. The following paragraph speaks of what appeared to be going on outside the city:

Grant's forces did is Hills firing on Tuesday afternoon, but the balance of hat day was converged to the colonial and the way of the continued on until early in the afternoon, when they sprung a mine on the left of our center, and opened fire slong the line for some distance. We have not been able to ascertification, and the paragraph reveals a very distressing condition of sfulrs:

A rumor has reached us that parties in our city have been, and are now, selling flour at fire doi-
